FRONT-END DEVELOPER

PERSONAL PROFILE

I am 33 years old, and i'm from Entre Ríos, Argentina. I always considered myself a person with curiosity and motivation to learn new things and the world of technology is an exciting world, constantly changing. I'm a Physichal Therapist since 2011, but a year and a half ago I started studying web development and my world change. I am currently doing freelance front-end projects and studying Python at the National University of San Martin and Full Stack Open 2021 in the University of Helsinki.
